

Creative Writing@ Paradise Valley Community College

Creative Writing Application

Purpose of the award: Here at Paradise Valley Community College, the Creative Writing program is proud to celebrate our diverse writer's community. Student-writers at all levels of experience find encouragement, instruction, events and opportunities to write and publish their own work. Here student-writers are valued as contributing members of our vibrant campus culture. The Creative Writing program is devoted to creating a campus culture which enriches interdisciplinary dialogue and perspectives.

There are number of Creative Writing Talent Waivers , which, though limited, support that effort.

Standards of eligibility:

Information on who may apply:

Students who are currently enrolled in ENG 183, ENG 210, ENG 217, ENG or ENG 205 or who plan on taking Creative Writing workshops (ENG 183, ENG 210, ENG 217, ENG 205 or ENH 280 a Learning Community–6 credits) and/or a specific Literature creative writing oriented courses at PVCC and; Students currently enrolled in at least three (3) credits at PVCC.

Students may also be nominated by faculty for this award.

Eligibility:

Student-writers currently enrolled in at least three (3) credits at PVCC.

Application Components:

Completed application and typed or word processed required attachments.

Name: _____

(Please Print)

Address:

Student Identification Number: _____

Telephone Number(s): home and cell:

E-mail Address: (Please PRINT)

College Major: _____

Total College Credits: _____

Signature of Applicant: _____

Have you ever received one or more PVCC Creative Writing Scholarship (s)?

Yes [] No []

If so, when (date/dates): _____

Respond to the Following Questions

Type, word process or print your responses. You may attach a separate piece of paper.

Responses should be a minimum of ten sentences and a maximum of two single-spaced pages. Composition and spelling are important elements of the selection process.

1. Describe your long-range creative writing goals.

2. Explain in detail how the scholarship will assist you in meeting your academic goals.

Incomplete applications and applications received after the due date will not be reviewed.

The decisions of the Creative Writing Scholarship Committee are final.